2. The bank shall, in compliance with the provisions of section 18A of the Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee Corporation Act, 1961 (as amended by the Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee Corporation (Amendment) Act, 2021), furnish to the Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee Corporation (DICGC), a list showing the outstanding deposits of each of its depositor and certified to be correct by its Chief Executive Officer within a period of 45 days from the effective date of these directions.

3. The bank is allowed to set off loans against deposits, if the terms and conditions of the loan agreements with the borrower provide that the amount in his specific deposit account (by whatever name called) may be appropriated / adjusted by the bank towards his loan account. Such appropriation / adjustment to the extent of outstanding balance in loan account may be done subject to following conditions:

- a. The accounts have to be KYC compliant as on the date of adjustment;
- b. Deposits held by a third party including but not limited to guarantor(s)/sureties will not be permitted to be adjusted;
- c. This option should be exercised under due notice to the depositor, normally in cases where further delay in setting off may result in the loan account becoming NPA. For setting off standard loans (being serviced regularly) and any divergence from the terms and conditions of loan agreement, prior written consent of the depositor-borrower would be necessary; and
- d. The deposit or its set off should not be subject to any restrictions such as attachment order/ prohibitory order of a Court of law or statutory authority or other authority empowered under law, earnest money deposit, obligation of trust, third party lien under the provisions of Multi State Co-operative Societies Act, 2002 and Cooperative Societies Act enacted by the State, etc.

4. A copy of this Directive should be forwarded to each depositor by the bank and should also be displayed on the bank's premises and the home page of the bank's website.

5. The Reserve Bank of India further directs that Sarvodaya Co-operative Bank Ltd., Mumbai, shall submit to the Chief General Manager, Reserve Bank of India, Department of Supervision, Mumbai, such statements relating to its operations as may be prescribed by the Reserve Bank of India in this behalf.

6. These directions shall remain in force for a period of six months from the close of business on April 15, 2024 and subject to review by the Reserve Bank of India.
